

Name: _____ Period: _____ Text Name: _____ Fiction/Non-Fiction

Dialectical Journal Rubric

Word Bank:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Diction Syntax Tone Figurative language 	(metaphor, similes, etc.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Allusion Repetition 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rhetorical Appeals (ethos, logos, pathos) Character analysis: 	development, foils <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Symbols, motifs, themes Irony 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Satire

0-5	6-10	11-15	16-20
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Does not identify or explain at least two words from the word bank Insufficiently explains what the quote is saying, summarize the segment from which it is taken, and explain its significance to the chapter as a whole. Provides insufficient comments on the style of a short passage that you find particularly well written or provocative. Unsatisfactorily connects your quote to a literary approach and analyze. AND/OR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Makes no connection between the quote chosen and an important aspect of other notable books of similar literary merit. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identifies but does not explain at least two words from the word bank Somewhat explains what the quote is saying, summarize the segment from which it is taken, and explain its significance to the chapter as a whole. Provides some comments on the style of a short passage that you find particularly well written or provocative. Somewhat connects your quote to a literary approach and analyze. AND/OR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Makes an unconvincing connection between the quote chosen and an important aspect of other notable books of similar literary merit. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identifies and explains at least two words from the word bank Explains what the quote is saying, summarize the segment from which it is taken, and explain its significance to the chapter as a whole. Provides comments on the style of a short passage that you find particularly well written or provocative. Connects your quote to a literary approach and analyze. AND/OR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Makes a connection between the quote chosen and an important aspect of other notable books of similar literary merit. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Properly identifies and explains at least two words from the word bank Thoroughly explains what the quote is saying, summarize the segment from which it is taken, and explain its significance to the chapter as a whole. Provides insightful comments on the style of a short passage that you find particularly well written or provocative. Sophisticatedly connects your quote to a literary approach and analyze. AND/OR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Makes an insightful connection between the quote chosen and an important aspect of other notable books of similar literary merit.

Entry 1	_____/20	Entry 2	_____/20	Entry 3	_____/20	Entry 4	_____/20	Entry 5	_____/20	Total	_____/100
---------	----------	---------	----------	---------	----------	---------	----------	---------	----------	-------	-----------

